

The 6th University of Bristol INSPIRE Showcase

Thursday 3 November 2016 – 6-8 pm
G13/G14 Life Sciences Building,
24 Tyndall Avenue, BS8 1TQ
Followed by drinks and nibbles

Keynote speaker:

Professor Jane Blazeby
‘from Slapstick to Symphony’

conducting surgical research of importance to Patients, Surgeons and the NHS.

INSPIRE

University of
BRISTOL

Including research talks from our INSPIRE students

Libor Myslivecek - T-tubule re-modelling in heart failure

Kimi Worsdell - Rescue of rare Cystic Fibrosis mutations

Marc Huttman - Elucidating the Molecular Biology of Cystinuria

Jonathan Chan - Role of exosomes in Diabetic Cardiovascular disease

Patrick Quinn - Does caffeine improve alertness at the expense of attention?

Launch of the INSPIRE Student Health Sciences Research Journal

Book your free ticket on Eventbrite

Student Health Sciences Research Journal

If you have any queries, please contact inspire-uob@Bristol.ac.uk

Supported by
welcometrust