

Rural Health and Care Conference

14th November 2017

IECHYD A GOFAL GWLEDIG CYMRU
RURAL HEALTH AND CARE WALES

Royal Welsh Showground,
Builth Wells, Powys LD2 3SY

– a conference for health and social care professionals, academics and practitioners with a particular interest in rural and remote issues

Theme and strands:

“Sustainable Health and Social Care Services in Rural and Remote Places”

- Rural and Remote population health and social care needs
- Maintaining health and wellbeing in rural communities
- Telehealth / Telemedicine
- Social / Green Prescribing
- Recruitment and Retention in Rural areas
- New roles in health and social care
- Workforce training and development in rural areas
- The cost of rural health and social care services

Official Opening to be conducted by Dr Chris Jones, Interim Chair of Health Education and Improvement Wales (HEIW)

Plenary talks by:

Nigel Edwards, Chief Executive, Nuffield Trust
Louise Patten, Chief Officer, Aylesbury Vale CCG & Chiltern CCG Federation
Peter Saul, GP Associate Dean, Wales Deanery

Attendance at the conference is free of charge, but numbers are limited therefore please register on-line to secure your place:
<https://ruralhealthandcare.wales/events/2017/11/rhcw-annual-conference/>

For more information, please contact Anna Prytherch,
RHCW Project Manager by email on anna.prytherch@wales.nhs.uk